Using the Mondo
Pascal Lecomte, 33, Project Manager, Paris
 When I'm away on a business trip, sending e-mail or faxes isn't a problem using my Mondo. The soft keyboard is a pleasure to use, and the large screen has superb definition. Everything about the Mondo is intuitive and ergonomic. I've downloaded all my contacts and key documents from my PC onto my Mondo, so it's like Home away from home, wherever I go.
